Reinforcements for Rosecrans.

The Milwaukee Sentinel of this morning says: A gentleman just arrived here from the army of the Cumberland, states that between Bridgeport and Chattanooga, he met large reinforcements on their way to Rosecrans. Our informant states further that it is not expected that Burnside will reinforce Rosecrans, the former having business of his own on hand. No one expects Bragg will attack Rosecrans in his present position, which is considered impregnable.

An Expedition.

An important expedition of gunboats,

artillery and infantry, left Fort Monroe on Saturday with sealed orders. They are under the command of Gen. Foster, and will be heard from soon. Where? Up

James river to attack Richmond? or Willington? Everybody may guess, but very few know.

The Point at Issue.

The Madison Patriot, in a long article on the "Union as it was," explains what that rather indefinite phrase means, to wit:

Could Louisiana, for instance, after the re-

A number of enterprising ladies of Chicago have planned a mammoth Fair and Festival, to be participated in by the entire northwest, the proceeds of which are to be donated to the Chicago Sanitary Commission. It should be remembered that the Chicago branch of the United States Sanitary Commission bestows its benefactions on all sick and wounded soldiers, without regard to state, rank, color, army or navy. Hence, in calling upon the northwest to contribute to that which bears a local name the committee have full confidence that the responses will be commensurate with the good work sought to be accomplished.

The fair is to commence on Tuesday morning, October 27th, and will continue, from day to day, for two or three weeks. It will be opened at Bryan Hall, Chicago, and, in the evening, a brilliant entertainment will be given at Metropolitan Hall. Other halls will be provided to meet any emergency.

This fair and festival is to consist of exhibitions of articles of manufacture, useful and ornamental, fine arts, fancy work, curiosities, relics of battle-fields, etc., and everything that can prove entertaining. These articles are to be contributed by the benevolent and patriotic, and at the close of the exhibition will be sold for the benefit of the sanitary commission. Articles may also be loaned for exhibition, in which case they will be carefully returned to the owners at the close of the fair. Public dinners are also to be served up at various hours every day; and it is believed that the tables will be provided for by donations from the plentiful lap of the northwest, the revenue arising therefrom will be a most gratifying one.

In enumerating the donations needed for the fair, the committee have thought best to arrange them in the following classes:

CLASS FIRST.—Knitted stockings and socks for men, women and children; all manner of useful and ornamental articles in fancy knitting; shawls, shawls, shawls, collars and hoods; Polish boots, children's gaiters, shirts and drawers, mittens, wristlets, under sleeves and baby socks; foot-cushions, sofa-pillows, carriage-blankets and Afghan; articles of children's and infants' clothing, shirts, aprons, etc.; gentlemen's dressing-gowns, smoking-caps, slippers, nightgowns and collars; embroidery, etc.

CLASS SECOND.—All useful and ornamental articles in wax, leather, shell, bead, hair and cone work; fancy vases, preparation of autumn leaves, sea mosses, skeletonized leaves, hanging baskets, drawings and paintings, aquaria, herbaria, mineralogical and ornamental cabinets or single specimens, shells, stuffed birds, Indian curiosities, winter bouquets, crosses, floral designs of "immortelles" or German amaranths, etc.; work-baskets, needle boxes, pin cushions, emery balls, etc., in every variety.

CLASS THIRD.—Articles to be donated by manufacturers or dealers, such as musical instruments, sewing, knitting, washing and wringing machines, cabinet furniture, carriages and saddlery, jewelry and silver work, fancy china and miniature sets; toys of all kinds; fancy dry goods, furs and millinery goods, books, stationery, pictures and photographs. Articles of this class will be marked with the name and residence of the maker and donor, and, whenever sold, will not be removed till the close of the fair.

CLASS FOURTH.—Agricultural and dairy products of every kind, which will be marked, exhibited and sold in the same manner as class third.

CLASS FIFTH.—Evergreens for decorative purposes. These should be made into wreaths; the rarer and more delicate, such as ground pines, into shells, stars, crosses, mottoes, etc. A few small and cheaply evergreen trees are desired.

CLASS SIXTH.—Fruits.—Apples by the box, barrel or basket; choice winter apples and pears with the varieties marked. Fall fruits, apples, quinces and grapes.

All articles in the above six classes may be sent at any time during the week preceding the fair, care being taken to insure their arrival at Chicago by the 20th of October.

CLASS SEVENTH.—Flowers and floral designs; green-house plants in pots. Donors of this class in Michigan will please send their offerings during the first week of the fair; in Wisconsin and Iowa, the second week; and in Illinois at any time during the fair. It is desirable that the same order should be observed in the sending of edibles for the dinner and refreshment tables.

CLASS EIGHTH.—Supplies for the tables; turkeys, chickens, hams, tongues, halibut, salmon, roast beef and mutton; birds, and all varieties of game; pork and beans and oysters. All of these (except the latter) must be thoroughly and carefully cooked. Tea, coffee, chocolate, broma, sugar and cream, as put up as to insure its sweetness for two or three days.

Plum and other cakes which will keep; mince, apple and cranberry pies, put up carefully in jars for transportation; preserves, jellies, jams, marmalades and canned fruit, also home made jellies; pickles of all kinds, sweet and sour, without vinegar, which will be added to them when they are opened for use; potatoes and vegetables of every kind, and of these too many cannot be said.

As a great number of knives, forks and spoons will be required for the use of the tables, donations of these articles are earnestly requested. They can afterwards be reserved for future occasions, or donated to the Soldiers' Home, always in need of these utensils.

CLASS NINTH.—Trophies, battle relics and mementoes of the war; battle flags, rebel flags, shells, balls, guns, sabres, swords, or missiles of any kind, papers and documents, accompanied by a statement of what gives to each its peculiar interest. These will be arranged for exhibition and sale in a room especially devoted to that purpose, and will be one of the most attractive features of the great fair.

In addition to the articles of this kind donated for sale, it is proposed to receive for exhibition all articles from cabinets, organizations and individuals, loaned for this purpose. Hence, state historical societies, military companies, or private individuals, having articles of this class in their possession, who are willing to loan them, are requested to make known their willingness to one of the following committees: Mrs. D. P. Livermore, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Valeria Campbell, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Dr. Carr, Madison, Wis.; and Mrs. N. H. Brainerd, Iowa City, Iowa.

As pictures and works of art donated will be arranged in a gallery, lighted so as to exhibit them to the best advantage. Loans of pictures and art works are solicited for the exhibition. They will be handled with great care, be arranged by competent persons, during their exhibition will be in charge of a careful custodian, and afterwards will be well packed and returned to their owners.

Donations of money are also needed to meet contingent expenses in the preparation for the fair, which, in view of its great magnitude, must necessarily be heavy. There will be bills to be met for printing, mailing, painting, carpentering, cleaning of floors, decorations, etc., and indispensable. Money may be sent to either of the committee whose names are subscribed to this circular, or to E. W. Blatchford, the treasurer of the Chicago Sanitary Commission, care being taken to indicate the purpose for which it is taken. All articles intended for the fair must be sent and directed in the same manner as hospital stores, marked Chicago Sanitary Commission, for the Northwestern Fair.

At the time of shipment, a letter of notification should be sent to the secretary, E. W. Blatchford, containing the bill of shipment and invoice of the box. Its receipt will immediately acknowledge by letter. This will insure the free transmission of all boxes, barrels and packages.

At the close of the fair, a complete catalogue of all articles donated (with the names and residence of the donors) will be published, and a copy furnished to every contributor. Each state will be credited with the amount of her donations.

The hearty, prompt and efficient co-operation of the entire northwest is urgently solicited. The great, ever-renewed and painful needs of our heroic soldiers, sick and wounded, in hospitals, call for the utmost efforts of all loyal men and women to make this affair an overwhelming pecuniary success.

" N. H. BRAINARD, Iowa City.

TO THE GERMANS.—Mrs. Governor Solomon, of Madison, Wisconsin, has kindly and generously consented to solicit and receive the contributions of the Germans for this fair. These offerings will be sent together, will be arranged, displayed, and sold in a separate department, space being reserved for them, exclusively, over which Mrs. Solomon consents to preside in person, throughout the fair, assisted in this work by ladies of her own selection. A most cordial and earnest invitation is extended to the German ladies of the northwest to co-operate with Mrs. Solomon in her undertaking, with the assurance that every facility will be granted them for the display and sale of the beautiful handwork, and fancy wares in which they so greatly excel.

The Vallandigham convention in Champlain county nominated Lieutenant Wm. Hamilton, of the 6th Ohio volunteers, an unflinching democrat, for clerk of the court. Instead of accepting, like a true patriot he replied: "To allow my name to be placed on a ticket and associated in a political contest with such men as C. L. Vallandigham and George E. Pugh is descending a little lower in the scale of degradation than I had expected to reach"—and adds: "If I had one thousand votes to cast at the coming election, every one of them should be given to John Brough."—Exchange.

The election of H. L. Palmer in this state would be an endorsement of Vallandigham. Palmer sympathizes with him and the copperhead democratic convention recognized his claims to their sympathy. If Vallandigham and Palmer should both be elected they would aid each other in opposing the government. All men who look upon the election of Vallandigham as a calamity and disgrace should, in Wisconsin, vote against Palmer.

ACADEMY, MILTON, Wis., Oct. 3d, 1863.

Messrs. Editors.—Will you favor the interests of the common schools of our country by an insertion of the following resolutions? They were unanimously passed by a convention of teachers at Milton academy, Oct. 2nd, 1863.

Thursday night a train of cars bound west on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad, when near Pierceton, 107 miles from Chicago, was thrown from the track, eleven double-decked stock cars being precipitated down a steep embankment, killing 500 sheep, mostly choice breeds that were being imported into Iowa. No injuries were sustained by any of the employees of the road.

Major E. A. Calkins, of the 3d Wisconsin cavalry, has arrived in Madison. He has been suffering severely from indigestion, but is speedily recovering.

The 3d cavalry are at Choctaw Agency in the Indian Territory, on the borders of Arkansas. In the recent campaign it marched 86 miles in two days in pursuit of the flying rebels.

EXECUTION OF SPENCER KELLOGG.—The Richmond Examiner, of the 29th ult., has a detailed account of the execution, at that place, on the day previous, of Spencer Kellogg, a man arrested as a spy in the employ of the federal government. He died heroically, triumphantly and as that sheet bore, "the conviction that he had furnished more valuable information, in the character of a spy, to that government, than any other ten men in the United States service." Yes, and when the superintendent of the infernal regions shall have assigned the editor of the Examiner and his co-traitors to a scullion's place in his dominions, and their names sink in the nostrils of coming generations, the name of this patriot martyr will be remembered and spoken of with reverence, by all lovers of this great country, redeemed from the curse of traitors and slavery.

We are informed that the wife of Mr. Kellogg resides in this city, at the present time. He was formerly from New York state, and enlisted at St. Louis. His friends are of the highest respectability.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Last Night's Report.

New York, Oct. 5.

The Washington dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune says:

All quiet along the lines, is the report from the front in Virginia. The soldiers have been both gladdened and plundered by the arrival of a long train of cars loaded with sutlers' goods.

"It can do no harm now to say that arrangements for forwarding troops from Washington to the department of the Cumberland have been brought to such perfection that soldiers who left here on Friday week were last Tuesday in a position to render effective assistance to Gen. Rosecrans, who has, by this time, received heavy reinforcements."

Special to Chicago Times.—A large number of surgeons and nurses reached here today from Nashville and Bridgeport. There are a large number at the latter place, unable to go to the front for lack of transportation. There are now more surgeons at Chattanooga than are needed.

The rebels have fortified the mountain side opposite Bridgeport, and, on Saturday, threw a few shells at the workmen engaged in repairing the railroad bridge at the river. Our pickets occupy the island in front of Bridgeport, and constantly exchange shots with the rebel pickets. Some of our pickets, belonging to an Indiana regiment, were killed on Friday.

No more passenger trains leave Nashville for Chattanooga.

Small bands of rebels are hovering about the railroad from Nashville to the front, but such measures have been taken that they will not succeed in effecting any important damage to communications. The savages being given them on Saturday, at Murfreesboro, by Col. McCook, will probably and all attempts of the kind for the present.

All points on the line are now guarded by a force sufficient to repel any attack. There is every reason to believe that the position of Rosecrans is impregnable.

New Orleans, Sept. 29, via Cairo, Oct. 5. Matters are evidently drawing to a crisis on the western side of the Mississippi. All of the 18th and 19th corps, except Gen. Herron's division, have been moved to Brashear City. One corps will move further west, while the other moves north to co-operate with General Herron, who has been after Taylor's force on Red River.

Gen. Banks, it is said, takes the field in person. Gen. Franklin is in command of the 19th corps. Gen. Herron's headquarters are on the Atchafalaya.

Nashville, Oct. 5. Wheeler's cavalry, estimated at 4,000, with four pieces of artillery, appeared this morning in front of Murfreesboro, but did not attack us. At last accounts they were still in the vicinity. Our cavalry had several skirmishes and secured prisoners.

A party of rebel cavalry also opened fire on a stockade at Stone river bridge, and after burning the bridge, retired two miles. Two small bridges are reported destroyed on the Chattanooga railroad.

The rebel force are reported to be hotly pursued by our cavalry, and rapidly retreating.

Four thousand or five thousand rebel cavalry, under Wheeler, with artillery, attacked McMinnville on Saturday afternoon, capturing the town and garrison, consisting of the 4th Tennessee infantry. Our forces were without artillery, and the town without defenses or fortifications. The rebels burned a train of cars, and destroyed the railroad and telegraph. They are believed to be advancing on Manchester.

Several prominent Union citizens are supposed to be captured.

Part of the same force destroyed a train of 200 wagons on Friday, between Bridgeport and Chattanooga, and captured an ammunition train of 12 wagons.

Portions of rebel cavalry are scattered along the road near and south of Murfreesboro, designing to destroy the railroad or telegraphic communication, capture stock, etc. Our troops are closely pursuing them.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5. A special dispatch from Knoxville, Tenn., to the Bulletin, says: "Col. Carter has taken position at Bull's Gap. The rebels hold Greenville, strongly reinforced. Bayard and Wolford are still in advance, below London, skirmishing with the rebel cavalry."

"The rebel attack on McMinnville indicates a formidable flank movement to cut Rosecrans' line and isolate Burnside."

"On the 28th the rebels attacked our right and were repulsed after a fight of two hours. A large number of rebels were taken prisoner. They express mortification at the result of the Chickamauga battle. Their loss exceeded ours."

"Two rebel divisions were at Harrison's Landing, on the Tennessee."

A PROCLAMATION.

The year that is drawing to a close has been filled with the joyful blessings of fields and fruitful flocks. To the countless numbers who are so contentedly enjoying that we are proud to forget the source from which they come, others have been and will be of so extraordinary a nature that they cannot fail to penetrate and often even the heart which is habitually insensible to the watchful providence of Almighty God. In the midst of a civil war of unequalled magnitude and severity which has sometimes seemed to invite and provoke the aggressions of foreign states, peace has been preserved with all its unction, order has been maintained, the laws have been respected and obeyed, and harmony has prevailed everywhere, except in the lines of military conflict, where the elements of discord have been contracted by the warring armies and the people of the Union. The peaceful devotion of the north and strength from the fields of peaceful industry to the national defense, has not arrested the plow, the shuttles, or the ship. The axe has enlarged the borders of our settlements, and the mines as well of iron and coal as well as the precious metals have yielded even more abundantly than heretofore. Population has steadily increased, notwithstanding the waste that has been made in the camp, the field, and the battle-field, and the country, rejoicing in the consciousness of augmented strength and vigor, is permitted to expect continuance of years with large increase of freedom.

No human cause hath defied, not hath any mortal hand weakened these great things—they are the precious gifts of that most high God, who, while dealing with us in anger for our sins, hath nevertheless remembered us in mercy. It has seemed fit and proper that they should be solemnly, reverently and gratefully acknowledged as with one heart and voice by the whole American people.

I do, therefore, invite my fellow citizens, in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea, and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to observe and repeat the LAST THURSDAY OF NOVEMBER, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer to our beneficent Father, who dwelleth in the Heavens; and I recommend to them, that while offering up the aspiration justly due to Him for such singular deliverances and blessings, they do, also, with humble penitence for our national perverseness and disobedience, commend to his tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, or sufferers by the terrible civil strife, and who are so unnumbered and engaged, and to implore the interposition of the Almighty Hand to heal the wounds of the nation and to restore it as soon as may be consistent with the divine purposes, to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquillity and union.

In testimony whereof, I have caused to be signed and sealed the seal of the United States to a Proclamation, to the effect of the foregoing, the 3d day of October, in the year of our Lord 1863, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty eighth.

(Signed) A. LINCOLN.

By the President: WILLIAM H. EDWARD, Secretary of State.

Talking about letting the freed negroes vote, a loyal Texan declared himself inflexibly opposed to the measure. "Because," he said, "in six months after you give the negro the right to vote, half the democratic politicians in the country will go about swearing that they have negro blood in their veins."

Rosecrans said months ago of General Thomas: "George H. Thomas is a man of extraordinary character. Years ago, at the military academy, I conceived there were points of strong resemblance between his character and that of Washington. I was in the habit of calling him Gen. Washington."
